FLYING HIGH

Eight Sika employees recently took to the skies for a 10,000 feet tandem parachute jump, raising over £4,000 in the process for Keech Cottage Children's Hospice.

The jump was made at the Hinton Airfield at Steane, Brackley and included a 5,000 foot free fall before the parachutes opened. Debbie Rose-Boyne from Sika's marketing department was one of the members of the team and commented: "It was a real once in your life experience, but more importantly we raised considerable funds for a worthy charity. I'm still shaking several days on!"

Part of The Pasque Charity, Keech Cottage Children's Hospice is based in Streatley and provides specialist care for children in Bedfordshire and Hertfordshire who have been diagnosed with a life-limiting illnesses. The hospices offer help, support and friendship to the whole family throughout the patient's illness and thereafter.
